Only One Favorite Numbered Among Yesterday Winners-Henry Walbank Finds Light Impost to His Liking and Wins Handicap.

El Paso, Tex., March 12.—The ideal weather that has added so much to the enjoyment of racing at Juarez of late continued today and, coupled with a promising card, served to attract a big crowd to the Mexican course. Interest chiefly centered in an overnight handicap at three-quarters of a mile from which Dr. I. E. Clark's good three-year-old, Orb, the top weight, was withdrawn, leaving six to go. Pay Streak, on the strength of his good snowing in the race in which Iron Mask created a new American record for five and a half furlongs was installed favorite and flattered his backers by running in a prominent position until into the stretch. Then he retired leaving the lightly-weighted Henry Walbank and Furlong to fight it out. The former, aided by his extremely light impost, was able to outlast Furlong and beat him by half a length. The winner was the extreme outsider of the race in the betting.

Mrs. Gamp, starting for the first time since her campaign of last fall in Kentucky, carried the colors of Seymour Veiller to victory in the opening dash, This filly is a half sister to Christophine, which reduced the American mile record to 1:304, yes-terday. She led by a wide margin from start to finish and Toy Boy just did get up to beat Yuba, another that was making her first start of the meeting, for second money. Kenneth, 'the over whelming favorite, quit after showing some early speed and finished far back.

Largo outganed Superi, which John Lowe recently bought, in a driving finish in the second race, a three-quarter mile dash for three-year-olds. The whomer was a receding first choice. The third race found originator backed from 12 to 1 to half that figure, leading from start to finish, with another heavily backed outsider. Angelus, second.

Miss Sly, running in the colors of J. W. Coaley for the first time, scored with long odds quoted against her in the fifth. She beat Ooma, which had been backed for a "good thing," by a nose. Affaco Jimmie, the well-backed first choice, quit after showing good early speed and w Jockeys P. Hill and H. Woods were suspended for five days by starter Cassidy for persistently breaking up possible starts in the first race.

PROSPERITY OF RACING IN KENTUCKY.

The state of Kentucky may well be proud of the manner in which racing—under the guidance of the State Racing Commission—has prospered and is conducted within her borders, and also by the unhesitating manner in which the executives of the various racing plants have responded to the mandates of the commission.

The spring racing season of Kentucky will open, as usual, here in Lexington and the Kentucky Association has once again put forth a liberal and attractive stake program, and Lexington, on account of her comparatively small population, from which the bulk of her attendance must necessarily be drawn, has exhibited all the liberality which could possibly be asked for, especially as climatic conditions at the early date at which the Lexington meeting is held are all too uncertain and the attendance in the event of inclement weather naturally decreases.

in the event of inclement weather naturally decreases.

The New Louisville Jockey Club offers a most pretentious list of richly endowed stakes, the chief of which is the time-honored Kentucky Derby, to which a sum of no less than $10,000 is added, truly a race worth any man's winning. Only seven stake races, as against ten for last season, have been opened by the New Louisville Jockey Club this year, but in aimost every instance the value of the stakes show a big increase over those of preceding years. The added money for the Derby, for instance, is twice as great as formerly. The Bashford Manor and Debutante Stakes have been jumped $1,000 and no purse will be offered of less value than $600 and the value of many of the ordinary handicaps will nearly equal that of the stake races of a few years $300.

Douglas Park is to the fore again with a strong program. The big feature, the Kentucky Handicap, will be worth close to $10,000 to the lucky winner and, though no announcement has yet been made by the Douglas Park people as to the value of thier purses, it goes almost without saying that there will be no falling off in liberality from last season.

ROAMER A REPRESENTATIVE OF THE BEST BLOOD OF ENGLAND AND AUSTRALIA

While not quite at the top of the tree among our two-year-olds of last year, Roamer was prominent in the second grade and it is well within the range of possibilities that he may prove to be one of the stars of 1914. He is a grandson of Trenton and Trenton was one of the most famous race horses and probably the greatest sire ever produced in Australia. His tribe is not precocious, but usually of the steadily improving sort, so Roamer may inherit this trait and prove much better as a three-year-old than in his younger days. His sire, Knight Errant, is probably the only Trenton horse in the stud in this country and when in training an some good races for his owners. He was brought to this country by James R. Keene, for whom, in 1903, he won the Autumn Stakes at Sheepshead Bay. Mr. Keene sold him to Philip J. Dwyer and in the following year he won the Seagate Stakes, for three-year-olds, at Brighton Beach, in Mr. Dwyer's owner-ship. It was in this race that the American Derby winner, Highball, broke a leg and was destroyed after the race was over. He ran third to Ort Wells and Broomstick in the Brighton Derby and was given second p.ace when Broomstick was disqualified for fouling. This was a capital race, the starters all carrying 1256 pounds and Ort Wells covering its mile and a half in such fast time as 2:32%. Knight Errant won good taces for Mr. Dwyer as a four-year-oid and altogether was considerable of a race horse himself. Roamer's dam, Rose Tree II., was picked up in England by Edward Corrigan while he was racing a stable there and was brought over by him when he returned. She was a mare of fine speed and won some fast races over Calcago tracks. It will be observed that she is by Bona Vista, which is also the sire of the world-famous stallion, Cyllene. It follows that, while Roamer is American-bred, there is not a drop of American thoroughbred blood in his veius. That the knife was used on such a richly-bred young horse was simply an outrage against American breeding interests. Theoretically our breders and intrage against American breeding interests. Theoretically our breeders and owners are supposed to have its improvement of the breed of horses formost in their minds, but the fact that such splendid young horses in Helios, Hawthorn, Old Rosebud, Little Nephew, Roamer, Bringhurst, Imperator and Bradley's Choice, menogeness, are glediogs, seems to point as a widely different conclusion, at least so far as some of them tree concerned.

Roamer's start in racing was as one of a field of cleven in a purse race at Lexington, May 1, 1912, it Roamer's start in racing was as one of a field of cleven in a purse race at Lexington, May 1, 1912, it least the sum of the sum of the sum of the conditions reposed in him had been closed for some time and had the result of making him an odds-on favorite at 65 (1000 him had been closed for some time and had the result of making him an odds-on favorite at 65 (1000 him had been closed for the conditions of the conditions of the conditions of the same distance, had not a purse care at the same distance. This time his conqueror was T. C. McDowell's Norman and the race was run in 44, old Ben finishing third, May 17 he once more took second money, finishing second to Old Rosebud at the same distance over a heavy track in 54, Brave Cunarder taking third place. At Douglass Park, June 4, he ran third to Old Rosebud and Little Nephew, at five-dights of a mile in 582, but was a poor third, at London and the was a first time unplaced. Has consistent racing had bet seasoned observation and he was a hot favorite against such opposition at 55 to Old Mosebud and Little Nephew, at five-dights of a mile in 582, but was a poor third, but consistent racing had bet escaped observation and he was a hot favorite against such opposition at 55 to Old Mosebud and the favorite at a second was a hot favorite against such opposition at 55 to Old Mosebud and Clarketonia and Saddle second and Minda third. That was his last race at the Latonia spring meeting and he was then favorite at such as a such pressure ana Latonia's stake program is framed upon practically the same lines as last year, but, here again the value of all purses has been increased to $600. The Latonia Derby, second only in importance to the big Louisville event, has $6,000 added. The Harold and Clipsetta Stakes, etc., are rich enough to insure spirited contests and materially increase the bank accounts of those lucky enough to win them.

Even in what have come to be known as the palmy days of American racing no stake of such magnitude or purses and handicaps of the present value were thought of by the executives of the vacious Kentucky racing associations and, if the present plans of those who are responsible for the management of these race courses in Kentucky materialize, we are led to believe that there will be close to sixty days racing in the Blue Grass state during the spring and early summer, and any owner fortunate enough to find himself possessed of a horse of merit will certainly be enabled to more than make both ends meet.

enough to find himself possessed of a horse of merit will certainly be enabled to more than make both ends meet.

To what then shall we attribute all of this prosperity? Certainly to the good offices of the Kentucky State Racing Commission, backed by a ready response on the part of the executives of the racing plants, and this we think has been made possible by the adoption of the pari-mutuel system of betting. To the heavy bettor perhaps the system now in vogue on Kentucky tracks presents some undesirable features, as instanced by the fact that every dollar wagered decreases the odds and increases the amount deducted. However, the rank and file of our racegoers thoroughly appreciate the system and endorse its installment by their increased attendance—in no uncertain manner. In fact, racing conducted under the pari-mutuel system is becoming more popular with each succeeding year and, so long as racing is carried on as at present, there seems to be but little danger of hostile intervention on the part of our legislative bodies, who by this time must surely have been brought to realize what a great asset racing and all that appertains thereto is to the state of Kentucky.—Thoroughbred Record.

Of the horses engaged in the Roumanian racing of 1913, thirty-three of the winners were bred in France, and their winnings aggregated $40,000. English-bred horses stood second with seventeen winners of $32,000, Roumanian-breds followed with forty-five winners of $25,000, then came the representatives of Austria-Hungary, with seventeen winners of $9,000, and Belgium brought up the rear by furnishing three winners of $4,000.

Canon Chase of Brooklyn appeared before the Assembly Codes Committee at Albany a few days ago and told its members that six of the bir New York race tracks had advertised to open this year "because the legislature had failed to do its duty last year." He appeared in behalf of a bill introduced by Assemblyman John Knight, of Wyoming, which is designed to close the loopholes in the anti-betting laws. The bill is not taken seriously. H. C. Barber, superintendent of the Society for the Prevention of Crime, exhibited before the committee photographs of alleged bookmakers surrounded by bettors, which he claimed were taken under his supervision at Belmont Park and Saratoga last season.

MORE RAIN AT CHARLESTON

PALMETTO PARK TRACK CONDITIONS AGAIN FAVOR MUD RUNNERS.

For Third Day in Succession, One Lone Favorite Is Successful-Susan B. Is Returned Winner of Handicap.

Charleston, S. C., March 12.—A sudden change to freezing weather militated against the racing this afternoon and caused a big reduction in attendance. Hard rain which began at midnight continued until the early hours this morning and converted the track into bad condition. Some of the races, as a result, suffered considerably by withdrawals. The handicap, for which eleven were originally named, was reduced to five starters, running in the interest of four owners. Susan B. and Carlton G., representing 1. M. Hedrick as 'an entry, ruled favorite, with Ancon next in demand. Susan B., running to her best form in the going, won well in hand, over Ancon, with Carlton G. in advance of the others. Jefferson Livingston's colors were seen for the first time here when Princess Callaway made her debut in the handicap. She ran a good 'race and probably will earn brackets before she leaves here.

The public again had a disastrons experience. Susan B, was the only 'favorite which managed to win. The failure of the choices began in the opener, when Bundle of Rags managed to get up in the last stride to beat Malik a nose, with the same margin separating the latter from Jezail, the favorite. Dally Waters was the choice in the second, but she never figured prominently in the running and finished far back. Tony W. won handily over Theo Cook. Big Dipper was an intended "good thing" in the third, but her chances were not improved by the handling Martin gave her and Ethelburg H, scored a handy victory.

The inconsistent L'Aiglon was in a running mood in the fifth and led for the entire trip, while Ford Mai beat the poorly handled favorite, Tom King, for second place. The closing dash found Jacob Bunn the favorite, but he went far below his previous good showing and landed third to Milton B, and Helen M.

OPPONENTS OF RACING HEARD.

Annapolis, Md., March 12.—A large delegation of formed to fight the legalizing of race track betting, appeared before the Senate Finance Committee in vigorous opposition to the Hammond bill creating a state racing commission.

The speakers were, in order, Dr. Robert W. Johnson, Henry F. Baker, a former president of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association; William F. Cochran, business man and reformer; and Rev. John Roach Straton, who was active in forming the committee. Speaker Trippe of the House was an interested auditor during the hearing, which lasted about an hour.

The arguments of the speakers were devoted to showing that it would be a bad thing for the state to legalize race track betting by taxing it as is proposed in the pending bill, but some of the questions asked by Senator Maloy seemed to indicate that he thought that so long as the betting was to be permitted the state should get some revenue out of it.

Mr. Cochran likened the betting to the liquor busines and said that once the state began to get revenue out of it the difficulty of getting the legislature to abolish it altogether would be increased the more. At the close of Dr. Straton's address Senator Ma-

"You have said you wanted young men protected from the race tracks. Don't you think the older men should be protected from the stock market?"
Dr. Straton replied that there was a legitimate stock market, but it was abused, and he would be glad to see Senator Maloy offer a bill to curb the evils attendant upon it.

Delegate William Purnell Hall has agreed not to insist on the immediate reporting of his anti-race track gambling bill, in order to give the Pimlico people an opportunity to be heard in opposition to its passage.

neo people an opportunity to be heard in opposition to its passage. It appears that though the bill has been in the House Judiciary Committee for more than a month, neither the Havre de Grace nor the Laurel race track people have concerned themselves about it. The supposition is that they have representatives here who are not known to be representing them and that they are sure that their interests are being well looked after.

The committee has already voted a favorable report on the bill, but it has been held back at the request of Speaker Trippe, to whom the Pimlico people appealed. Under the new rules the bill can be forced out on the demand of fifteen members and the necessary backing, Mr. Hall said today, he could easily get. The understanding is that if there is not a prompt report Mr. Hall will insist that the bill be brought out.

ADDITIONS TO AUSTRALIAN RULES.

The Australian Jockey Club has adopted some new rules, one of which is:

"The stewards may take possession on a raccourse of any horse which has been entered for or run in any race, and detain such horse for the purpose of examination, identification, or observation for such period as they think proper, without being liable for any damages in consequence of the exercise of such powers or otherwise."

This rule is framed with a view to dealing with cases of supposed "ringing."

Another addition to the rules reads:

"After a horse has left the weighing enclosure or such enclosure or place as is mentioned in the next preceding rule to proceed to the starting post, no owner, trainer, or other person connected with such horse shall, except by leave of the stewards, or rider, or touch, or interfere with horse or any of its equipments."

At meetings in the metropolitan era owners, our presider wealth attent the liberties inferred, but

At meetings in the metropolitan era owners, or trainers rarely attempt the liberties inferred, but at country fixtures the sudden desire to tighten a girth is not uncommon, and the rule has been framed with a view to putting a stop to such procedure.

THE HENDRIE HORSES AT HAMILTON.

Hamilton, Ont., March 12.—The Hon. John S. Hendrie has but one entry in the King's Plate at Toronto, that being Slipper Day, the consistent little filly which started seven times as a two-year-old, scoring two firsts, three seconds and two thirds. It will be the first time in many years that the Valley Farm has placed its dependence on but one horse in the race for the King's Guineas, the blue ribbon event of the Canadian turf.

A trip to the Valley Farm found trainer Eddie Whyte putting the Hendrie thoroughbreds through their paces in preparation for spring campaigning. Opening day at the Woodbine is two months away, but Whyte is a firm believer in an early start.

Slipper Day did not show her best form last season owing to a deformed knee, which worried her a great deal, but she has wintered well, and the deformity, while still noticeable, is not likely to bother her this season. Trainer Whyte firmly believes that Slipper Day is the speediest filly ever bred in Canada, but on top of this assertion he added that Beehive, the hope of the Giddings stable, would carry off the King's Guineas.

Another Martimas filly, the property of George M. Hendrie, is at the Valley Farm, but was not entered in the Plate owing to the fact that she had no racing experience last year. This filly, Martina, is out of Placena, and is a half-sister to Parmer, a King's Plate winner. Martina is a big, rangy filly, and will make her debut in one of the Canadian-bred events.

Martimas is sire to a couple of racy-looking two-year-olds. One of these is a brother to Glimmer, and is a chestnut colt, out of Flicker. As a yearling he showed real good form in the latter part of the 1913 season, and has filled out well during the winter. Last Spark is the name which has been chosen for this colt, which bears many of the marks of his sire. Another likely-looking youngster is Splutter, by Martimas—Splash. Spluter is also a chestnut colt, and is a brother to White Caps, a Canadian-bred which has carired the Hendrie colors to victory on more than one

A smart-looking brown filly, Odds On, by Martimas—Otsiketa, the property of George M. Hendrie, is also under trainer Whyte's care at the farm. Other horses belonging to George M., at the farm. Other horses belonging to George M., at the farm are Fergus, a gelding bred by Walter Parmer, in Kentucky, and purchased by Mr. Hendrie last year, and Red Fire, a bay colt by Red Fox II.—Shimonese. Many believe this colt to be among the best at the farm, but Mr. Whyte claims he has shown nothing to be deserving of such touting.

Still another promising two-year-old which will carry the brown and yellow this season is the gelding David Gillies, named after David Gillies, of Hamilton, by David Garrick—Placena.

Trainer Whyte says Denham will never again attend the races. He was one of the fastest horses ever bred in Canada, but he was bad-footed and as a result was seldom in condition to run to his top form. Local enthusiasts will remember how Denham took Jack Atkins' measure at the Hamilton track in a six-furlongs race a few years ago in fast time. Tankard, a Burgomaster gelding, which won brackets last year as a three-year-old, is looking good, and another which should be heard from this spring is Privet Petal, purchased by the Hendries from Mrs. Livingston last year.

There are now thirteen yearlings at the farm, seven of these being by Martimas, four by Harvey and one by David Garrick. There are twenty broodmares, most of which are in foal, and foals are expected to arrive at any time. Most of them were served by Martimass, but a real acquisition to the stud is the big stallion. TOM KILEY'S NOTABLE SADDLE CAREER

St. Louis, Mo., March 12.—Thomas Kiley, one of the most famous jockeys of his day, was penniless when he died here Monday night. Kiley was found dead in his bed at the Laclede hotel and the body was removed to the morgue. He came here from Charleston last week and informed a friend that he was "down and out." Apoplexy is supposed to have been the cause of death.

Kiley will be remembered as one of the great race riders of his day. He jumped into national prominence in 1889, when he won the American Derby at Washington Park on Spokane. The following year he also won the Washington Park three-year old classic with Uncle Bob. Kiley also piloted Spokane to victory in the Kentucky Derby of 1880. This was the year in which Spokane defeated the great Proctor Knott. Spokane, with Kiley in the saddle, also defeated Proctor Knott in the Clark Stakes at Churchill Downs the same year.

Kiley's own skill, coupled with his success in 1889 and 1890, gave him his choice of mounts for the American Derby of 1891. What appeared to be the best two colts in the race were High Tariff and Poet Scout, both owned by the firm of Eastin & Larrabie. Strathmeath, owned by Green B. Morris, was also well thought of. Kiley selected High Tariff, and when his mount was in a contending position on the backstretch during the great mile and a half struggle he suddenly swerved and dropped dead in his tracks. High Tariff had burst a blood vessel. Kiley escaped injury. Meanwhile High Tariff's stable mate. Poet Scout, went on, took the lead and at the eighth post seemed to have the race at his mercy. But the track was heavy, and Monk Overton had Poet Scout in the deep going. This is where George Covigton, astride Strathmeath, stole a march on the negro rider and by keeping on the hard path next the outside rail finished with a rush and beat out Poet Scout. Kiley piloted R. A. Swigert's Michael to victory in the St. Louis Derby of 1891.

Kiley, after he became too heavy to ride, became an owner and trainer. He sold Wightman to Otto F. Stifel of St. Louis for $12,000 in the early inneties. Some years ago he won many races at the Hawthorne track, Chicago, with a little bay mare, Maggie Lebus, Kiley afterwards trained horses for W. H. Fizer and others.

The dead horseman was 55 years of age. He has a sister living in Springfield, Ill.
